

Can I request where or when my child practices?

My child is involved in multiple activities. What about conflicts?

BASC cannot place a player on a specific team that practices at a certain location.

BASC cannot place a player on a specific team that only practices on a certain day or time of the week.

BASC cannot reschedule league games because of conflicts with another sport or other activities.

The logistics of placing 1800 players on teams is very time consuming and requires weeks of planning and hundreds of hours of work! BASC cannot place your child on a team based on where or when a team practices. BASC cannot place your child on a team based on the child's personal schedule due to conflicts with another activity or sport. Refunds are not given for practice field conflicts.
